

or received by the bank. It is possible that in the holiday mail accumulation, the letter became lost. I wrote it on Christmas Day but mailed it a day or two later.

Ann has always acknowledged my letters promptly, so I am believing my letter was lost. Will you please inquire about it, and if they didn't receive it, I want to write again. Thank you.

I feel the fifth generation in our family is doing just great, as I now have two great-grand nieces, two great-grand nephews, two grand nieces, three grand nephews, two nieces and one nephew besides Ann and Sam.

Generations: 1. My mother and father;
2. Your mother and I; 3. You and Louise;
4. Margaret, Elizabeth, Don, Robert, Russell; 5. Lori, April, Will, Chris, David.
I call that one fine family.
